Listening for the Promise

Weekly Devotional Christmas Day— December 25, 2020

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. - Hebrews 1:1-3 –

When our children were younger, people would always try to figure out which one of us they looked like. Our son, everyone decided, looked like neither his mother nor father, but like his paternal grandfather. Our daughter, however, is the spitting image of me. People take one look at her and say, “She’s your mini-me.” Of course there are differences, we aren’t exactly alike! She is not the “exact imprint” of her mother. We have similar facial features, yes, but when it comes to the things we do, the things we are good at, we are very different. Still, it makes me happy to hear people say how much she looks like me. I take it as a compliment because I think she is beautiful!

When the author of Hebrews wrote that Jesus is the “exact imprint” of God he was talking about more than Jesus being the Father’s mini-me. This theological passage is less about looks (after all, we don’t know what the Father look likes anyway), than it is about character. Character is a Greek word that means “precise representation.” But Jesus is more than that even! He’s not a replica - he is God in the flesh. He is one with the Father and the Holy Spirit! In the beginning he was with the Father and the Spirit as the creation came into being.

My grandma, who had dementia, used to say that the dresses in her closet were not hers. They were “cheap imitations,” she would insist. Jesus is not some cheap imitation of the Father. He is the real deal, “Emmanuel” God with us. What we see in Jesus is exactly who God is, nothing more and nothing less. This is helpful for us, especially when we wish to speak to others about Christ. If we want to know who God is and what the nature of his character is, we need only look at Jesus. Jesus once told his disciples, “If you knew me, you would know my Father also.” (John 8:19)

Jesus shows us the true nature of God because he is God. Amen.
