Letter from the Pastor

Long ago, my favorite thing to do before bed was to sit at my computer and fly around the world on "Microsoft Flight Simulator." I've wanted to become a pilot my whole life. After a year or so of virtual flight, it struck me: the computer-generated illusion had become so engrossing that I was losing my desire to become a real pilot.

I know it sounds kind of science-fictiony, but through the past year, with the pandemic and all the bitter political conflict in our country, I keep having the weird feeling that our society is caught in a kind of simulation, unable to get hold of any substantive truth or reality. Powerful spiritual forces have been fragmenting us, driving individuals and groups towards isolation for a long time. Electronic media have done many wonderful things for us, but with social media and iPhones, and with people increasingly addicted to screens, it's also easier than ever to take cover behind barriers of physical distance and anonymity in our dealings with each other. We might be more connected to each other, but we're also farther apart than ever. Covid has only magnified the situation, pushing us farther apart while making the "connection" part uglier, a lot of the time.

For one thing, with the barriers of physical distance and anonymity in place, we don't have to take as much responsibility for what we say. When this is the case, our sinful nature oozes out. Instead of listening to each other and learning to deal with people who bother us, we're more quick to throw verbal bombs and wave political banners. It's become very hard to trust each other.

I have never been so thankful for God's Church in my life. When we come together as God's people, we aren't about waving our own banners or presenting ourselves as the sole keepers of final truth. Rather, before anything else, we're helping each other hear what the living Lord is trying to say to us through his Word, today. We're united in his mission, which cuts through all worldly divisions. Yes, we have different opinions about social issues, parenting, politics—we always will. But our Lord Jesus unites us under his banner of grace and forgiveness. As sinners who know we stand on nothing but his mercy, we treat each other with reverence and respect. We take the risk of listening carefully before we speak. We can allow ourselves to show our weakness, our brokenness, our vulnerability. This is where Jesus the Savior meets us: in our human reality. Thank God we don't have to be caught in the current simulation, where we are the (fictional) heroes of our own preferred storylines.

Times like the ones we're living in are not when faithful Christians retreat fearfully behind screens. Rather, this is when we can lift up Christ and His Church as the only chance for unity and true fellowship in a broken world.

Small groups—which include Sunday school classes and the faith webbing that Gary, Laurie and Diana are always doing with our young people—might not seem like a particularly revolutionary answer to the ugliness of our society today. But don't be fooled by small groups' quiet simplicity. When we come together in the name of Jesus, put our trust in him, and share our faith with each other, our courage grows. Sometimes it's only one person at a time, but the Holy Spirit is changing lives, and the Kingdom of God is growing in our midst. What we do and say in the presence of Christ and his people has a way of rippling out into the world in powerful ways we never imagined. It's always been this way with the Church.

Jesus describes faith (and the Church) as a tiny mustard seed that grows into a non-descript but hardy and invasive shrub (Matthew 13:31-32). The current factions of the world may try to overpower each other and out-shout each other, but in the middle of the noise and confusion, the invasive shrub is quietly growing and spreading. That's what we're doing with small groups; equipping each other to mount a quiet but unstoppable invasion of the world, for Jesus' sake.

I encourage all St. John's members to seriously think and pray about joining a Going Deeper small group sometime in the coming months. It's another way our wonderful congregation helps us to be pilots for Christ, and to fly for real.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Seth Jersild

CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILY MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES!

AGES 4 THROUGH GRADE 6

We meet 5:45—7:15pm most Thursday evenings. Our greeter's table will open at 5:30pm. A suggested donation of $2 will be collected at the greeter's table to cover the costs of our meal. Masks are required at Connect but will be removed to eat dinner. If you are concerned about your child removing his/her mask, please talk to Laurie about the option of skipping dinner and coming for solely for the bible and game activities. If a child is unable to come to Connect and would like to do virtual check-ins with us during the week, please let Laurie know at lpecuch@stjohnsgc.org.

Connect will meet in-person on Oct. 7, 14, and 21. If this changes, we will contact parents through e-mail. We will not meet Oct. 28 so children and families have more time to attend the St. John's Trunk or Treat event on Saturday, Oct. 30.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Think about donating your leftover Halloween candy to the Quilters for the Christmas bags. If you don't have any leftover candy, you can usually get good bargains on candy the next day after Beggars' Night at the stores. We make 100 bags for the children at the LSS Food Pantries. It takes two tables full of candy to fill the Christmas bags. The bags hold crayons, pencils, ballpoint pens, sturdy combs, toothbrushes, toothpaste, booklet about Ohio wildlife, stuffed toy, and most importantly, candy. We still need sturdy comb and Beanie Babies-type stuffed animals. You have met our goal of 100 boxes of crayons. Thank you! We accept erasers, glue sticks, small notepads, nail clippers. etc. You don't need to donate 100 items. We accept any number of items that will fit in our 10" X 10" bags. Place your Christmas bag donations in the Quilters' cabinet in the Link. Thank you to the many of you who have already given donations to the children.

If you have an interest in learning or already know how to hand quilt, we have empty chairs at the quilting frame. All that is required are nimble fingers and willing spirit. If you don't want to do quilting, another activity is cutting canceled stamps for the veterans' hospitals' rehab activities.

Faith Mission does not want used clothing anymore. Therefore, we no longer collect, sort and donate used clothing. Please, please give your used clothing to another charity.

The Quilters usually meet every Tuesday in rooms 103-104 from 9am to 2pm or thereabout as we come and go as we please. All materials are provided

With your donations for the Christmas bags and your caring, we can continue to help the children who need our compassion and understanding.

NEXT EVENT – OCTOBER 15, 2021

The Older Wiser LutheranS (OWLS) are planning a very special meeting for October and hope you take a minute to add it to your calendar. Our speaker is Ed Reeves, a Grove City resident with a very interesting and heartfelt story to tell. "My Search for my Vietnam Scout Dog, Prince" is the title of a book he wrote in 2016. The following was copied from Amazon's website where his book is for sale.

"After training for five months at Fort Benning, Prince and Ed Reeves worked as a point team on patrols in the jungles of Vietnam. They ate together, slept together, sloshed through rice paddies together, walked up and down mountain trails in the heat and monsoon rain together, and flew in choppers together.

When Ed's tour was up and he got to go home, the hardest part was saying goodbye to Prince. He had to stay. Ed thought about him all the time, wondering what happened to him. When the troops were pulled out in 1973, Ed gave Prince up for dead. He just wondered how. How did he die? Was it fast in the heat of a battle, or was he euthanized because he was considered excess equipment? Or the worst fate--was he turned over to the South Vietnamese Army? For 36 years Ed had those questions.

In 2007, he found out what happened!" And on the 17th so can you!!

We are planning to resume our potluck lunches this month unless the church policies change due to Covid 19. Please arrive around 11:15 am so we can prepare for lunch and start the meeting promptly at 11:30 am. Bring a covered dish to share – fried chicken, meat loaf and drinks will be provided. Please use the salmon insert to sign up or call Bonnie Swanson at 614-562-8002. Reservations are always important but this meeting is our first lunch in a long time and we'd like to be prepared. Remind your friends – Invite a friend – Come join us for a great speaker and a wonderful lunch.

Hope to see you there!

CHRISTIAN PARENTING CLASSES: OCTOBER 24th AND 31st

Pastor Seth will be leading a two-session class for parents (and all who are interested) during the Sunday School hour on October 24th and 31st. Our topic will be "Christian Identity." In our current culture, many forces are actively working to pull young people away from faith in Christ and from his Church. In these classes, we'll be helping each other identify some of those challenges more clearly, and share ways to encourage our children to have a strong, healthy and joyful sense of rootedness in Jesus.

We'll be meeting from 9:30 to 10:30 in the basement Fellowship Hall. Parents, grandparents, guardians and all interested folks are encouraged to attend!

St. John's Lutheran Church has an opportunity to be the light in hard-to-reach places by sharing God's love through gift-filled shoeboxes. Each shoebox is an opportunity to reach a child with the gospel. For many of these kids, this is the first gift they have ever received! Suggested gift items are small cars, balls, dolls, new short-sleeved shirts (no writing), small flashlight with batteries, soap AND plastic covered soap dish, toothbrush AND toothbrush holder, pencils, erasers, colored pencils, pens.

"Pack your shoe box with love, send it with prayer and share the Good News of Jesus Christ with a hurting child. That's the power of a simple gift." Franklin Graham, President, Samaritan's Purse.

All donations and filled shoe boxes must be returned church Link entrance by November 7. Please contact Jeremy Butsko with any questions at (614)871-6295.

There are three ways to participate:

1. Pick up a prepared shoebox from the church entrance or Link. The instructions for packing your box are included. Fill your box with some of the suggested gift items.
2. Build your shoe box online for just $25. You can bless children around the world without leaving home! Go to St. John's website to locate the Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Goal Page and build your online box.
3. Donate monetarily or with gift items. 100% of the donations will be allocated to the operation. Donation drop-off tubs can be found in the church entrance and Link.

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." – John 1:5
