Letter from the Pastor

We begin the season of Lent this month. An American folk song comes to mind:

Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! The hour is at hand!
Wake up! The long night is past!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! The victory's near!

Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! A new day is here!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! Come out of the dark!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! Come out of the past!

Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! The poor from the dust!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! The sick from despair!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! The cities in ruin!

Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! Come out in the light!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! To stand up and fight!
Wake up! Rise up!
Wake up! To stand up and fight!

It's been a weird two years. Hearing the words "Rise up!" might be tough right now. It can hurt to hear a trumpet sounding Reveille before dawn on a dark day. A lot of people are feeling numb and discouraged. Who ever thought that we would see our "cities in ruin?!" Many of us ache with spiritual bruises, frustrations, and losses. We might want to pull the covers back over our heads. But the Easter trumpet is calling in the distance, across the wilderness: Wake up!

As followers of Christ, we can always hear the final trumpet, rousing us to the future he has prepared for us. Our Savior wants us to take hold of the new day right now.

On Ash Wednesday, when the pastor smears the black cross—God's signature—on our foreheads and says "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return," that's the end for us. We can embrace it. We can admit that we are dust. We can give up our fight. And it's a beautiful thing. Because that baptismal death is where we join in God's fight for this world.

Let's jump into this beautiful Spring season of Lent together. Let's turn away (repent) from the fears, resentments, indifference, and bad habits that immobilize us. Let's join in God's fight for the soul of this world and joyfully proclaim Jesus is Lord to our neighbors. His victory is ours.

In His Service,

Pastor Seth Jersild

Thank You!

"Dear friends at St. John's, I want to thank everyone for all the help you gave my great-grandchildren for Christmas. I'm sure their mother, Kathy Eggeman, appreciated everything. I could not believe all the gifts, food, and gift cards. It was above and beyond. Thank you, thank you!" ~ Charlette Rausch

"To our brothers and sisters of St. John's. Thank you for all your prayers and thoughts for Bernice Chaddock. Thanks to our pastors, Steve Marcum, the Prayer Shawl Ministry, and the Bereavement Committee for helping us get through this difficult time." ~ Barb and Jack Sims, Janet and Ed Fisher, Ike and Shelah Stage.

"The family of Gail Turnbull would like to thank our St John's family for all your love and support as we say goodbye to Gail. The prayers, cards, food, flowers, and prayer shawls have meant so much to us. A special thanks goes to Pastor Seth for his visits and for bringing us communion during this difficult time. Thanks so much to my (Rosie's) Small Group for all you have done to support me. It's a hard time and you have been wonderful to our family."

~ Rosemary, Gayla, and family.

"On behalf of the Bereavement Committee, and under these unusual circumstances we want to thank everyone who worked and/or donated food for the families of those who have lost loved ones. We appreciate all the support, not only to the families but to the St. John's. We are so blessed to have everyone reaching out to those in need."

~ Wilma Phillips.

"To my dear friends at St. John's, thank you for the many beautiful cards, flowers, and phone calls. The casseroles we received when I arrived home from the hospital were wonderful. Pastor Seth visited, gave Holy Communion, and offered prayer for my healing from knee replacement surgery. I am thankful for the prayers from all my friends. I'm sure that has helped with my great progress and coming recovery. I'm doing well and hope to see you in church soon. Yours in Christian love," ~ Carol Penrod.

"There are not enough words to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy you have extended towards our family during the difficult time we have gone through after Annette's passing. We would like to thank our church family so much for your sympathy. We greatly appreciate all your kind words, food, cards, and visits. We realize how truly blessed we are to have such wonderful friends during times like these. Your expressions of sympathy will never be forgotten. Sincerely," ~ Elaine Bennett, Karen Bentley, and Families.

"We had to arrange a memorial service, and since we are not affiliated with any church, we were advised to contact St John's Lutheran Church on Columbus Street. They are remarkable. Pastor Seth conducted a beautiful service with all our requests, the ladies of the church provided the food for after the service, and we were permitted as much time as we needed to share our loss. We are thankful for their help in our time of need. If you attend, please let someone know they are appreciated." ~ Pat Stevens.

"Dear St. John's family, I just want to express my appreciation for your help with my brother's electric bill. I don't know why I worry because somehow – some way – God takes care of us. They are getting back on their feet and need a break. Thanks again," ~ Chris Jenkins.

"Dear brothers and sisters at St. John's: Thank you for the cards, calls, prayers, and thoughts at the passing of my mother (Anita Cramer). You are all so thoughtful and kind. It means so much to know our church family is always there for us." ~ David and Lisa Stallard.

"Thank you for once again opening up the church to host my studio's holiday piano recital. All of my students and their families were so excited to be back this year after having to cancel the 2020 recital. The church's hospitality is always greatly appreciated!" ~ Andrea Keil.

"Dear St. John's members: Thank you for your generous gifts at Christmas to our grandchildren. Blessings to you!!" ~ Christine and Bill Snashall.

OUR LENTEN JOURNEY "The 7 Penitential Psalms"

The Book of Psalms is the great prayerbook of the church, even as it has always been for the Jewish people. There is truly a psalm for every occasion in life.

Over the centuries, seven psalms in particular have been a source of insight and meaning to those in need of repentance, those harassed by sin, those who need to confess their sin and turn to God's loving mercy for rescue. The church assigns them during Lent as a way to encourage the repentant faithful to pray them. During Lent, we will reflect on these seven psalms as part of our Lenten Discipline.

On Wednesday, March 9, we will host the OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY CHOIR, under the direction of Dr. Gayle Walker. They will present a 40-minute concert in the sanctuary as that evening's Lenten service. Plan now to make this a part of your Lenten journey.

EASTER LILIES

To order a lily for the Easter worship services in memory or in honor of a loved one, please fill out a form located at the church entrances, or access one via the website at www.stjohnsgc.org. Forms will also be available in the April Eagle.

SOUP DINNERS COMING THIS LENTEN SEASON! Please plan to join us on Wednesday evenings, starting March 9th for a soup and bread dinner prior to the Lenten Worship Services. We will begin serving at 5:45 pm in the Family Life Center. The worship services will begin at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary. This is a great opportunity for fellowship, food and reflection. If you or your group (Circles, Choirs, Sunday School Class, Small Group, etc.) would like to provide soup and bread one week, please mark the salmon sheet from your worship bulletin and we will follow up with you to schedule a date. Thank you!

FRIENDLY REMINDERS FOR CHURCH USE

- ◇ Please turn off all lights in your meeting room once it is over.
- ◇ Please turn off and empty the coffee maker and dishwasher, if used.
- ◇ For evenings and weekends, if you are the only group in the complex, make sure you lock the link doors from the inside once all of your group has come in. We don't want anyone hiding in the building prior to your group leaving.
- ◇ If it is dark when your meeting is over, please go out in groups of two or more. Make sure everyone can reach their car safely, get it started, and is able to leave.

Quilters

Thanks to everyone for your donations of canceled stamps, the Quilters mailed a shoebox full of stamps weighing 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ pounds for two veterans' hospitals in Virginia. They use the stamps for hand rehabilitation activities.

If you would like to make a quilt at home for a charity, we have fabric, encouragement, and friendship free of cost. Come visit any Tuesday or call the church to set up a meeting.

The Quilters meet every Tuesday from 9am to 2pm in rooms 103-104. Stay as long or as short as your interest and time allow. We have room for you as we are a small group. If you are staying during lunch time, bring a sack lunch. All materials are provided.

"If a man shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, he too will cry out and not be answered." ~ Proverbs 21:13

OWLS EVENT—MARCH 18, 2022

The Older Wiser LutheranS (OWLS) are inviting you to their March 18th meeting. Janet Shailer, well known and respected author from Grove City, will be the featured speaker. "Trouble on the Scioto's Waters: Soldiers, Frontiersmen, and Native Americans—1725-1815" is Janet's latest book and her program is certain to keep you interested. If you're thinking to yourself "Hmmm, I think I remember her and this program for the OWLS once before," you are absolutely correct!! Unfortunately, at that meeting in June of last year there were a few technical difficulties (not Janet's fault) and we were not able to enjoy her full presentation. Janet has shared this story with many groups and is always a favorite.

For those of you who don't know Janet: She has had a 50-year career in the media, including nine years as editor of the Southwest Messenger newspaper. She is the author of three children's books, co-author of two history books (Grove City) and one novel. She is a member of the board of trustees for Southwest Public Libraries, a commissioner for the Grove City Historical and Arts Commission and is head writer of the Grove City Writers' Group.

Come and be a part of this amazing group. We offer friendship, companionship and support for each other. And of course we love our potluck! OWLS will provide fried chicken but you will have to join us to see if meat loaf is on the menu! Bring a covered dish and join your friends for a delicious lunch and a wonderful program. We ask you to arrive around 11:15 am so we can open the meeting at 11:30 am. Use the salmon insert in Sunday's bulletin to make your reservation so the group can plan accordingly. You can also call the office or Bonnie Swanson at 614-562-8002. Hope to see you there!

CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILY MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES!

FAITH AND PURPOSE WITH GARY AND LAURIE: Join us on Sunday March 6, 9:30am—10:30 am, in the Family Life Center. We will continue the conversation about how God has made each one of us. Come and learn about temperaments, what makes us unique, and how we can better understand each other. This class is designed for grades 7—12 and parents, but any adult is welcome! It's a great morning in self-discovery and understanding yourself, others, and family members (of all ages).

AXIS PARENTING RESOURCE: It's a website with parent guides, conversations kits, expert videos, and excellent materials on parenting youth in today's culture. If you'd like to be on our AXIS email list and/or like to have direct membership access to the website, please contact Diana Imbrock. If you're a parent, grandparent, or someone who faith webs with our youth...this is a very helpful resource! There is also an AXIS resource wall on the second floor, across from the youth office. It's been recently re-organized and is full of insightful Parent Guides with practical tips on parenting.

A NEW PARENTING GROUP: It's now meeting in room 103-104 on Sunday mornings during the Sunday School hour, 9:30am—10:30am. A great hour of discussion and learning. Talk to group facilitator, Amy Wanner, for more details.

JOIN US AT CONNECT! Connect meets weekly on Thursdays, 6pm – 7:15pm. Children, ages 4 through grade 6 are invited to join us. Grades 7—12 are invited to be leaders. Plus we have an awesome group of trained adult leaders! The greeter's table opens at 5:40pm. If you have any questions, talk to Laurie. Her number is 614-620-2669. We have lots of fun, faith-filled things planned for each age group!

Please note CONNECT does not meet on March 3rd (to allow leaders and families time in their schedule to attend Ash Wednesday worship) and we do not meet on March 31st (Spring Break for SWCS).

MIDDLE SCHOOL CATECHISM: We continue to "TROT" through the Bible with New Testament lessons. Parents, please check your weekly email from Gary for latest catechism updates and service opportunities. The Second Year Advance is scheduled for Saturday, March 12th. We welcome high school students who've been through confirmation to share their faith tri-folds. Talk to us!

HIGH SCHOOL: IQA Bible Study is continuing its study in the book of Hebrews. See Diana for the virtual GoToMeeting number. High school through adults are welcome to join. High School Faith Quest continues to meet on Sunday mornings, 9:30am—10:30am. They are going through Conversation Kits (video, bible, and discussion) on current topics (chosen by the class). A bimonthly get-together, called GLOW, is also happening. Text Laurie for meeting times and details. Her number is 614-620-2669.

Be sure to join these great opportunities too!

- Sunday School (for all ages) meets 9:30am to 10:30am on Sundays. Contact Tim Allman for more details.
- Children's Church meets on Sunday mornings during the sermon time of Contemporary Worship. Contact Jenn Czaplicki for more details.
- Acolyte Club! We have a faithful group of students who acolyte. If you would like to become an acolyte, talk to Laurie Pecuch.
