TODAY’S NEWS

QUARTERLY CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS will take place after all worship services NEXT weekend, July 16-17. Information packets for the meeting are now available both online and in person.

EAGLE DEADLINE is TODAY. Please submit your article by noon on Sunday.

GARDENING ANGELS NEEDED! Now that the landscaping around the church has been updated, we are in need of volunteers to adopt areas around the church. This involves checking your area regularly to keep weeds from taking over your designated section. We would also appreciate help with watering the planters and beds in the front of the church/Link/FLC during times of drought. We have hoses that will reach those areas. Edging and mulching will be done for you each spring. We ask that you help us maintain the uniformity and landscape design by not adding additional plants or decorations to your area. Please check the salmon insert to let us know of your interest—even if you have previously adopted an area or signed up to help at the Ministry Fair. Thank you in advance. ~ The Landscaping Team.

OWLS EVENT – JULY 15. The Older Wiser Lutherans (OWLS) are going on the road again!! We hope you are excited to be getting out and about with the group. We will carpool from the church and visit The Wagnalls Memorial in Lithopolis. Our guided tour will start at 10:30 am so you could meet the group there or meet at the church at 9:30 am to arrange rides for those in need.

On May 30, 1925, Mabel Wagnalls Jones dedicated The Wagnalls Memorial in honor of her parents, Adam and Anna Willis Wagnalls. Adam was the co-founder of the publishing giant, Funk & Wagnalls. Both Adam and Anna were born in log cabins in Lithopolis, Ohio. Mabel knew it had always been her mother’s dream to do something for the little village which had never had anything done for it and to provide opportunities not available to her as a child. With the building of The Wagnalls Memorial, Mabel would fulfill her mother’s dream. Mabel, an author and a concert pianist, had a special fondness for her parents’ birthplace. Although she lived most of her life in New York City, she visited it from the time she was a small child to spend time with her grandmother who lived in the village. Come join us and see paintings that were used as covers for Funk & Wagnalls' magazine The Literary Digest adorn the walls of the Rager Reading Room. Two original Norman Rockwell paintings are on permanent display near the patron services desk.

Take a stroll on the pathways in the garden to admire the rock sculptures and martin house of Dr. Edward Roller. He collected rocks from all over North America and used them to create bird houses, vases, and other structures.

MEET AT CHURCH	–	9:30 AM
DEPART FOR WAGNALLS	–	9:45 AM

We can always use more drivers if you are willing and able. Guests are always welcome!!! Use the salmon insert in Sunday's bulletin to make your reservation. You can also call the office or Bonnie Swanson at 614-562-8002. Hope to see you there!
