Letter from the Pastor

[Jesus said] "Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me; but whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name." [Jesus] replied, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." [Luke 10:16-20]

In one of my former congregations, a committee kept track of all the people who identified as "visitors" on Sundays. Each week, they'd contact all the people on the list. There were often a lot of phone calls to make, because the church was growing.

One time, there was a new person on the visitor committee. After making all the phone calls, she was dejected. She told me that none of the people seemed interested in our congregation. She felt she had failed. She wondered if she was saying the right things. But I told her the same thing Jesus tells us. It's not about being successful all the time. It's about being faithful. She had taken the risk of planting seeds. Whether people reject or accept the invitation is in God's hands. Whether anything grows from the seeds is up to the Holy Spirit. The only thing you and I can control is whether we're going to plant the seeds or not. We do have a choice when it comes to that. She had acted faithfully.

When it comes to planting seeds on hostile soil, we might tell ourselves (a) we don't know enough about our own faith, (b) we wouldn't know what to say, (c) we don't know the Bible well enough, (d) we're too shy... the list goes on. But there are obvious, simple ways to conquer these barriers we see in front of ourselves. From the beginning, Jesus meant the Church to be a training ground. We're the troops he's sending out into a hurting world. This is not a judgment, but a statement of fact: If you do not receive ongoing training in the faith through Bible study, through sharing Christ openly at church, through talking about Jesus with your fellow Christians in a safe environment; then chances are slim to none you're going to openly proclaim Jesus out in the world, where the bullets of a pagan culture are zipping past you.

In Luke 10 (above), Jesus says to the people he has sent out: "do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In other words, don't get too caught up in the measurable results of what you do every day for God. Instead, know that in Christ you've already won the war. Don't be concerned with how many people reject your invitations. Instead, rejoice at the banquet table. What a privilege we've been given, to plant the seeds of the coming Kingdom in this passing world!

Jesus sets us apart and sends us out on a mission to proclaim Him, not ourselves. He also guarantees our final success. Today's failures, today's embarrassments and rejections and fears... let's nail them all to his cross and move on towards the final goal which can never be taken away from us. At every opportunity, let's proclaim that Jesus is Lord and Savior honestly, boldly, humbly, and openly on the battlefield. Through him, the final hour belongs to us.

In Christ,

Pastor Seth

"Dear Pastors, staff, and brothers and sisters in Christ at St. John's,

"I didn't want what Gary Pecuch described as his "slide off the staff" at St. John's to go by without publicly acknowledging the impact of his ministry on my family, and take the opportunity to thank God, Gary, and all of you. For me, Gary's God-given calling to train and equip our young people with faith skills for life represents years of answered prayers. I witnessed this firsthand as a family group leader for each of my boys during their confirmation years. My prayers for the boys to have amazing Christian role models – dedicated men who put God first, and live lives of service and commitment to their families, church, and community – have been answered by so many men at St. John's over the years, especially Gary Pecuch. He even served as their driving instructor when they were teens! Talk about answered prayers!

"The impact of Gary's ministry at St. John's will continue to be a positive force in the years ahead. His focus on faithwebbing and building leadership skills and servant hearts has touched the young people he ministered, their families, and our community. As we all know, the Bible doesn't discuss any retirement plans, only new assignments. I will continue to pray for Gary as his next assignments unfold and I thank him and all of you – those who discerned his call to St. John's and all those who have prayed for, participated in, and supported all aspects of his ministry among us over the years.

"1 Peter 4:11 – If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen."

"To the Glory of God and in thankfulness for His many blessings,"

~ Beth Ann Katterhenrich, mom of the Shrum boys – Jonathan, Matthew, and David.

Quilters

The Quilters send many thanks to those who have already donated items for the food pantry's Christmas bags for the children! Thank you especially for the donated crayons. We have met our goal of 100 boxes of crayons, 100 pencils and 100 pens. We feel so blessed to have you help us reach some of our goals early. Again, thank you.

We still need donations of sturdy combs. We cannot use combs that are in packs of multiple combs for a couple of dollars as those combs are too flimsy. We appreciate any number of Beanie Baby-type toys, small balls, small pads of paper, sturdy combs, hair picks, and glue sticks.

The children's delight is your leftover Halloween candy! We use two tables full of candy to fill the 100 bags. Please check that the expiration date is in 2023. We cannot give expired candy to the children. Please place your donation in the Quilters' cabinet in the Link. The Quilters thank you for your interest, concern and thinking about Christmas giving so early in September.

The Quilters meet every Tuesday from 9am to 2pm or thereabouts in rooms 103-104. If you wish, bring a sack lunch if staying during lunchtime. All materials are provided.

OWLS of OHIO

Long-eared
Owl

OWLS EVENT - SEPTEMBER 16, 2022

For the past couple of years, we have enjoyed a wonderful lunch catching up with those we don't see often, and we did not plan a program, so the agenda will stay the same! We are so pleased to be able to get together and enjoy our time together. God has blessed each of us by leading us to St. John's and offering us the Christian fellowship that is priceless.

If you would ask almost any OWL (Older Wiser Lutheran) to name one of their favorite meetings of the year, I am pretty sure most of them would say "Der Dutchman! Of course!" What's not to like about a restaurant that is located in a beautiful country setting and the bounty of a country kitchen?

They serve generous portions of hearty, home-style Amish Kitchen Cooking. They might not be as good as our Lutheran cooks, but we think they're pretty good. Their bakery is full of pastries, cakes, cookies, breads, and their legendary pies that are baked every day. And if you have any money left over, their gift shop is very inviting.

You will have two options for lunch. The buffet costs $21.99 and includes dessert, beverage, tax and tip. Or you can order from the menu.

We will meet at the church at 10:15am to set up our carpool. We will depart for the restaurant no later than 10:30am. We have reserved a private room. If you are driving separately you should plan to arrive by 11:15am. If you are able and willing to drive, it would be greatly appreciated! Please make your reservation using the salmon sheet from your worship bulletin – including if you are able to drive, need a ride or if you are meeting the group at the restaurant. Hope to see you there!
